

BROUT'S ARREST ON WARRANT TO BE COURT ORDER

Justice Putnam Delays Signing Writ, However, Until Appeal Can Be Prepared.

Justice Putnam announced in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, today that he will sign a warrant to-morrow calling for the arrest of Edward J. Brout, president of the Union Bank, in pursuance of the Court's ruling that Deputy Superintendent of Banks Edward Kane Dodge has the authority to subpoena Mr. Brout and question him as to the affairs of the Union Bank. But

Mr. Brout will not be arrested immediately. At the time he signs the warrant, Justice Putnam will also grant a stay of proceedings. This stay will enable counsel to arrange details as to Mr. Brout's appeal from the decision of the Court. The warrant was in court today when counsel appeared before Justice Putnam to advance Mr. Brout's motion for a re-argument of the whole proposition. Deputy Attorney-General Chambers had the warrant and wanted the Court to sign it on the spot, but the proceeding detailed here was finally agreed upon.

When Congressman Martin W. Littleton will say when word reaches him in Europe of certain remarks made in the course of today's arguments may be imagined by those familiar with Mr. Littleton's temperament. A new lawyer appeared for Mr. Brout—Stephen Baldwin. Mr. Baldwin asserted that the contentions of Mr. Brout were not properly presented in the first instance. "We feel," said Mr. Baldwin, "that our facts, if presented in a lawyer-like way, would cause Your Honor to take a different view of the law in the situation." Mr. Littleton presented the case in the first instance.

ACCUSE UNION WORKERS.

Supreme Court Justice Pendleton today reserved decision on the application of the Employers' Association of the Marble Industry of New York to continue a temporary injunction against the Whitestone Association, the Reliance Labor Club and the Communist Labor Club, the three largest unions engaged in the marble industry in this city.

The Employers' Association charged that the unions have been interfering with the business of its members by intimidating and assaulting non-union employees. Alfred and Charles Stockler, appearing for the unions, denied this, adding that the unions were acting within their rights in endeavoring to get recruits into their ranks.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—The profits accruing to Armand Schuhl, known in sporting circles as Jack Curley, who promoted the Gutch-Hackenschmidt wrestling match recently held here, were slid up yesterday in an injunction issued by Judge William H. McBurney in the Superior Court.

Mrs. Mildred Schuhl, wife of the promoter, applied for the injunction as a preliminary step toward filing suit for separate maintenance.

Fall Suits, Coats and Dresses and a few special remarks for Misses and Small Women

What we wish most to impress upon those who are not yet familiar with the aims of our Misses' Department is this: That it is essentially a young women's department, devoting itself wholly and exclusively to wearing apparel in Misses' sizes. Unlike many such departments which are an offshoot or a branch of a women's department, it caters only to the needs of young women and girls, and is perhaps unique in this city for the degree of perfection it has attained in standardizing sizes. It is this and the added consideration of low prices which have made our Misses' Department a centre for Misses' styles.

Suits for Youths & Boys Ages 14 to 20 Years 12.50 to 25.00

We would like to drive it home to you that Saks clothes for youths and boys have many points of superiority over contemporary productions. Our prices are most reasonable, it is true, but you cannot appreciate just how reasonable those prices are unless you apply to them the acid test of other considerations.

First, we yield nothing to anyone on workmanship, on style, on fit or on the quality of the fabrics we use. Second, and not less in importance, we believe we are alone in the degree of attention we devote to young men's clothes as young men's clothes and not as abridged editions of senior sizes.

We are tailors to the youthful generation, and have the keenest possible appreciation of what ambitious and aggressive young spirits require in the clothes they wear. They want youthful clothes, and it is we who make clothes that are youthful.
